

Rice University Police Department and PACE Youth Programs, Inc. Introduce RUPD PACE Youth Academy

FORGING AHEAD

WHO

Boys & Girls
Ages 14-17

WHEN

July 25-29, 2016
9:00 – 4:00; M-F

WHERE

Rice University
6100 Main Street
Houston, TX 77005

WHAT

RUPD PACE Youth Academy

A fun and exciting adventure for youth to learn about the different areas of law, police encounters, crime scene investigations, emergency medical services, use of technology, internet safety, decision making, college life, career choices; see the police canine, mounted and helicopter units; and enjoy recreational activities using the fascinating facilities at Rice University.

Students will attend classroom sessions with lectures, role-playing, and interactive demonstrations by police officers from the Rice University Police Department, Houston Police Department and Harris County Sheriff's office. Students can ask questions to a criminal judge, attorneys and investigators from various offices.

To apply for the RUPD PACE Youth Academy: Have your parent/guardian complete and sign an application and the liability forms. Deadline: July 15, 2016

Bridging the gap between Youth ~ the Community ~ and the Police

Rice University Police Department
Contact: Johnny Whitehead
Chief of Police
Website: www.rupd.rice.edu

Academy Sponsors

PACE Youth Programs, Inc.
Contact: Steven Holloway
CEO & Founder
Website: www.paceyouth.org

For more information contact Steven Holloway at sholloway@paceyouth.org

